SELLING SHAREHOLDERS

In general, the persons to whom we issue shares of Class A common stock under this prospectus will be able to resell such shares in the public market without further registration and without being required to deliver a prospectus. However, certain persons who receive our Class A common stock may want to resell those securities in distributions that would require the delivery of a prospectus. With our consent, this prospectus may be used by certain shareholders who wish to sell our Class A common stock. As used in this prospectus, "selling shareholders" may include shareholders who receive our Class A common stock hereunder in connection with an acquisition and donees and pledgees selling shares received from such people. We may limit our consent to a specified time period and subject our consent to certain limitations and conditions, which may vary by agreement.

Selling shareholders may sell our Class A common stock in any combination of the following:

- through the Nasdaq National Market or any national securities exchange on which our Class A common stock has been approved for listing in the future;
- directly to purchasers in negotiated transactions;
- by or through brokers or dealers, in ordinary brokerage transactions or transactions in which the broker solicits purchases;
- in block trades in which the broker or dealer will attempt to sell securities as an agent but may position and resell a portion of the block as principal;
- in a transaction in which a broker or dealer purchases as principal for resale for its own account; or
- through underwriters and agents.

Resales by selling shareholders may be made directly to investors or through securities firms acting as underwriters, brokers or dealers. The fees earned by or paid to the securities firm may be the normal stock exchange commission or negotiated commissions or underwriting discounts to the extent permissible. Shares of our Class A common stock may be sold at a fixed offering price, which may be changed, at the prevailing market price at the time of sale, at prices related to such prevailing market price or at negotiated prices. The securities firm may resell the shares through other securities dealers, and commissions or concessions to those other dealers may be allowed. Such selling shareholders may indemnify any securities firm participating in such transactions against certain liabilities, including liabilities under the Securities Act and to reimburse them for any expenses in connection with an offering or sale of securities.

The selling shareholders and any broker-dealers who act in connection with the sale of shares hereunder may be deemed to be an "underwriter" within the meaning of the Securities Act. Any commissions received by them and profit on any resale of such shares as principal may be deemed to be underwriting discounts and commissions under the Securities Act.

Selling shareholders may also offer shares of Class A common stock covered by this prospectus by means of prospectuses under other registration statements or pursuant to exemptions from the registration requirements of the Securities Act, including sales that meet the requirements of Rule 144 or Rule 145(d) under the Securities Act. Selling shareholders should seek the advice of their own counsel about the legal requirements for such sales.

The following table sets forth:

- the name of each selling shareholder as of the date of this prospectus;
- the number of Class A common shares which such selling shareholder may sell from time to time pursuant to the prospectus; and
- the number of Class A common shares beneficially owned by the selling shareholder prior to the offering.

A selling shareholder may offer all or some portion of the Class A common shares. Accordingly, no estimate can be given as to the amount or percentage of Class A common shares that will be held by the selling shareholders upon termination of sales pursuant to this prospectus. In addition, the selling shareholders identified above may have sold, transferred or disposed of all or a portion of their Class A common shares since the date on which they provided the information regarding their holdings in transactions exempt from the registration requirements of the Securities Act.
