FIRST ADVANTAGE AFFIRMS GROWTH STRATEGY BY APPOINTING ANDREW MACDONALD AS SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT OF CORPORATE DEVELOPMENT

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., Sept. 17, 2007 — First Advantage Corporation (NASDAQ: FADV), a global risk mitigation and business solutions provider, today announced that Andrew Macdonald has been promoted to the position of senior vice president of corporate development to direct and manage the company's strategic acquisition related initiatives. Reporting to President and CEO Anand Nallathambi, Macdonald will be part of the corporate executive team.

"Going forward, strategic acquisitions and partnerships will be areas of heightened corporate focus," said Nallathambi. "Andy has been instrumental in both accelerating the growth of the Investigative and Litigation Support Services segment and directing many of our previous acquisitions. We are leveraging his talents by giving him responsibility for this key initiative."

Under Macdonald's leadership, the Investigative and Litigation Support Services segment revenue has increased from $34.6 million in 2005 to $59.2 million in 2006 and to $34.2 million in the first six months of 2007, while operating margins have increased from 6.1 percent in 2005 to 19.3 percent in the first half of 2007. He has been instrumental in bringing in tenured leadership to manage the companies in this segment, and these leaders will continue to run the businesses with his oversight.

Macdonald joined First Advantage in 2002 through the acquisition of Employee Health Programs, where he was president and chief executive officer. He is a member of the Oxford College Board of Counselors and a director of Best Practices, LLC, a Bethesda, Md. health sciences company. He has a bachelor's degree in Business Administration from Emory University.
